

Edward S. Johnson Jr.

July 15, 1956 - December 28, 2012

EDWARD S. JOHNSON, JR., son of the late Edward Samuel Johnson, Sr. and Anna G. Johnson, was born on July 15, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on December 28, 2012.

Ed received his high school education at Cardinal Gibbons High School in Baltimore. He furthered his education by attending Babson College in Boston, where he earned a degree in accounting. Later in life he turned adversity into triumph by using his own life's challenges as motivation to empower himself and help others. Ed went on to receive his Masters in Social Work from University of Maryland in 2002. He devoted the majority of his social work career to providing support to clients battling with addiction.

Ed was a family man who loved to cook and make others smile. He had a knack for making small talk with all those he encountered. Ed was not just a Baltimore Ravens fan, he was quite the athlete himself. His fun, competitive spirit led him down ski slopes and across marathon finish lines. Ed loved trying new things and became an enthusiastic member of the Maryland Tenth Calvary Gun Club; a hobby he enjoyed with his sister Michelle. Above all, he was a spiritual person, a Christian who was a member of several churches throughout his life journey. He recognized that faith and the power of God were his sources of strength.

Ed leaves to cherish his memory: daughters, Nia, Nicole and Danielle; one sister, Michelle; nieces, Dawn and Gabrielle; four grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends. We will forever cherish his memory.

“ To the Family of Ed Johnson,
I was very saddened to learn of the passing of your loved one. Ed and I worked as colleagues some years ago for Quarterway Houses, Inc. It was a pleasure working with him and I know how dedicated he was to the career path he chose. May you continue to find comfort and peace in the loving memories that shall never fade.

“ I am so saddened to lose Ed. I have known Ed for many years as a coworker and more closely over the past few years as a coworker/boss and friend. I am not sure how I will be able to face each day without that great smile and of course his wit. Ed was a wonderful clinician who was able to relate to patients on a such a personal level. He will be so missed my me and the lives of the many people he touched along the way. Jane Krimmel.

The Johnson Family, I have known Ed for over 45 years. I attended school with him at St Edward's and Babson College, I worked with him at Coopers and Lybrand ( Now PWC).. The phone call I received on Saturday stopped me in my tracks. Ed was always in good shape. I'm still in shock. He was a musician, a father and a business man. I know he is in heaven arranging a gig, helping God keeping the books, and telling jokes to keep everyone loose.. Rest in Peace my Brother!!!

To the Johnson Family, my sincere sympathy. I met Ed the first day of our Freshman year at Babson College and we remained good friends through the years. I will miss our long distance phone calls that covered everything from music, sports, (Steelers vs. Ravens), food, family and having a personal relationship with our Savior. May God bless you in this time of sorrow.
