“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Even though death is a harsh reality of life at present, this will not always be the case. Almighty God has wonderful things in store for his obedient children. One day there will be peace on this earth for all people, and there will be no more crying, no more dying. Revelation 21,3,4 says, Look! "The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them , and they will be his peoples; and God himself will be with them. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things things have passed away. verse 5 says, "Look! I am making all things new. So a new, wonderful change is about to take place on this earth, and we won't have to experience the pain of losing a loved one in death ever again. May those uplifting bible thoughts help to keep you going, and strengthen you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hi! Edward's ! I send my condolences to u all the family. When we lose a dear love one the family circle is broken. Mr. Edward was 67 years old when he die. The bible give us confidence to face the future with comfort from our heavenly father as 2Cor.1:3 says. May all the happy times times spent with Mr. Edward stay close to you all hearts as we look forward to the time when no one will ever die again as Rev.21:3-5 say. My fellow feeling to you all,L.Crosby.##imported-begin##I.C.##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss of Mr. Sampson. His death must have been very difficult to deal with for you and your family. I am leaving you with bible scripture that may help you. This scripture comes from Hebrew 10:24,25. It reads...and let us consider one another to incite love and fine works, not forsaking the gathering of ourselves together, as some have the custom, but encourage one another, and all the more so as you behold the day drawing near.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
