

Edward Lee Jr

November 1, 1960 - June 7, 2024

Edward Lee, Jr., son of the late Ella and Edward Maith Lee was born on November 1, 1960 in Baltimore, MD. Edward was a strong and determined individual who was called home on June 7, 2024 at 10:50 a.m.

Edward (known as Junior Bread, Corn Bread and sometimes Koochie by a long time friend) attended Baltimore City Public Schools. Junior worked for Brightwell Construction and from there worked for Millenium Concrete and Construction, Inc. owned by William High.

Junior married Mary Lee, the love of his life. They both enjoyed going to the casino, especially driving to the casino in Atlantic City for the weekend. Junior loved to eat home-cooked meals and made sure he had two slices of bread and hot sauce. Junior enjoyed going to Walmart to shop and made sure he bought two cases of water not knowing who was going to lift them; but once he got home, he called Mr. Rob to say, I got a few bags can you help me out and sure enough he did and the two cases of water. You sure will be missed.

Edward leaves to cherish his memory: five siblings, James Stanley Bibbens, Shirley Ann Ragland, Vernell Lee, Elizabeth Lee and Monroe Lee, all of Baltimore, MD; four aunts, Mary Etta Jackson, Mary Ellen Bibbens, Peggy A. Samuels and Barbara A. Brooks; one uncle, Herbert Wade Bibbens; two sisters-in-law, Dorann Bibbens and Marlene Saunders; four step-children,

Adrian Austin, Kokita Austin, Sherrell Austin and Allen George, Jr.; two step-grandchildren, Koby and a special bond with Jeremiah Prawl who enjoyed staying the weekends with Junior playing his games and ordering take-out; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other devoted family and friends.
