“ Hello ! Crosby's ! I would like to send my condolences to you all in your recent loss of Mr. Edward. I am a Crosby, family from Chester, South Caroline. Living for 71 years is great in these last days as the bible for told, 2Tim 3:1-5. Imagine the happiness to had when the dead are raised back to life , a joyful time indeed. I am looking forward to that happening. There will be No one ever sick and in pain or in need of any thing, WHY? because at Ps.145:16 tells the answer. I hope your days will be filled with peace of mind and heart on the journey of life ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ If IF life were but a dream, my Love, And death the waking time; If day had not a beam, my Love, And night had not a rhyme, -- A barren, barren world were this Without one saving gleam; I'd only ask that with a kiss You'd wake me from the dream. If dreaming were the sum of days, And loving were the bane; If battling for a wreath of bays Could soothe a heart in pain, -- I'd scorn the meed of battle's might, All other aims above I'd choose the human's higher right, To suffer and to love! “ Please accept my condolences to your family. At times it seems difficult to find comfort when we lose a loved one in death. May you find comfort in the hope of the resurrection. Jesus so wonderfully demonstrated this at John 11:38-44 with his friend Lazarus. We also have the assurance of 1Cor 15:26, in which Almighty God promises to remove our enemy death. May these scriptures bring you comfort and strength during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##
