

Edward Lee Fair

March 24, 1934 - October 25, 2003

Mr. Edward Fair, born Oran Evans Jr. on March 24, 1934 in Raleigh, North Carolina, was the son of the late Oran and Pauline Evans.

He attended Crosby Garfield School and Washington high School in Raleigh, North Carolina. At an early age he was baptized at Rush Metropolitan AME Zion church where he attended Sunday school regularly.

As a young man, he left Raleigh and moved to Baltimore, Maryland where he subsequently changed his name and met and married Nanie Brown. He worked at Bethlehem Steel Mill for over 35 years.

Edward had six wonderful children: three sons, Oran Fair, Carl Fair, and Tyree Oran Fair (now deceased); and three daughters, Constance Fair, Valerie Fair Baker, and Djuana Fair. In addition to his children, he is survived by: Sherin Brown, step-daughter; Douglass Jeffers, god-son; three sisters, Dorothy King of Spring Lake, N.C., Ernestine Nelson of Fayetteville, N.C., Juanita Harris of Raleigh, N.C.; Wilbert Saunders, brother; eleven grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and a host of nieces and nephews. Ms. Pauline Poree, who was his closest friend and companion for over 20 years, also survives him. His brother Winford Saunders, his sisters Ida Evans and Christine Saunders preceded him in death. He loved sports, but most of all he loved his children... they were his joy.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
