“ I send my sincere and heartfelt condolences to the family at this time. Losing a loved one is so hard to come to terms with. We feel so powerless, because we know that nothing we can say or do can bring them back to us. Jehovah God never desired such sorrow for us. That is why when Adam sold us into sin and death, he took steps to undo what Adam did to the whole human race by sending his beloved Son Jesus to pay that ransom price for the whole world of mankind. 1st Corinthians 15:22 gives us this assurance, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." Remember how much God really loves us. John 3:16 reminds us. It says, "For God loved the world so much that he sent his only-begotten son in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life. So even though the death of a loved one hurts us like no other event in our lives, remember that death is only temporary. John 5:28,29 promises that the dead will one day hear Jesus"s voice and they will come out of the memorial tombs to everlasting life. Then we will be able to acknowledge, "Death where is your victory? "Death, where is your sting? May you be comforted in knowing that one day your loved one will rise again from the grave and will never have to depart from you ever again. May your cherished memories of happy day spent with Mr Heard help you to bear up under your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Mr. Heard's family and friends. When death separates us from our dearly loved ones, deep sorrow may result. We understand then, why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:3,4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the resurrection hope by stating: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ To my In Laws-the Heard Family: I know from the wonderful things I've heard and seen that Edward,Sr. was extremely loved. Although he will be greatly missed, he is in a place we cannot even comprehend--in Heaven with the Almighty. Let's pray together and STAY together, as our dear dad would have wanted us to.##imported-begin##Katrina Heard##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. I am sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). The Bible provides us with God's comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 that soon, "He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
