“ I am very sorry to learn that your family loss Edward, to death. I am sure that this must have been a difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam. ##imported-begin## JT Nunnally ##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the passing of your loved one. Death is the most painful event in the lives of all families, and not being able to see them again is so hard to come to grips with. I know, because I too have lost many family members and friends. What comforts me is knowing that death is only temporary, and one day Jesus Christ will call all those who are in the memorial tombs back to life everlasting, according to John 5:28,29. One day all of this pain, sorrow, and all tragedies will be eliminated from our lives, and if we are obedient children of God, and faithful to his commandments we have the wonderful hope of being reunited with our loved ones again who have passed on. At Isaiah 25,8 Jehovah promises that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. I hope these scriptural promises from Jehovah and Jesus comfort you, as they have comforted my family over the years, and may your precious memories of Edward help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
