

Edward A. Pullen, Jr

November 3, 1969 - February 20, 2025

EDWARD A. PULLEN, JR., the beloved son of Edward A. Pullen, Sr. and Marjorie Pullen, was born November 3, 1969 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. He departed his life after a short illness at Union Memorial Hospital.

At an early age, Edward accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior. He was led to the Lord by his Pastor, Lava L. Baylor, of Mt. Carmel Grace Baptist Church.

Edward graduated from Lake Clifton High School. He worked at McCormick and also at Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Edward loved his family, especially his grandchildren. He loved music. One of Edward's favorite songs is "Glory, Glory Hallelujah," whom his late grandma Susie enjoyed as well. Edward also enjoyed his favorite artist Jaheim, who seemed to make him raise his arm and snap his fingers. (DIG IT RIGHT)

He leaves to mourn: three sons, Edward Pullen III, Montez Pullen and Nathaniel Thomas; daughter, Lacrisha Pullen; seven grandchildren, Kamari Pullen, Kaiden Pullen, Kylah Pullen, King Foster, Camarg Watlington, Bella Blow and Myasisa; his mother, Marjorie Pullen; two sisters, Darlene Pullen and Donna Pullen-Eaton; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
