

Edward R. James

August 25, 1924 - January 29, 2004

On January 29, 2004, God in his infinite wisdom deemed it appropriate to add to His heavenly kingdom the soul of Edward Rodgers James, this ending his earthly travail. Edward R. James was born in Northhampton, North Carolina on August 25, 1924, the fifth of seven children of the late Maggie and Linwood James. After attending public School in Portsmouth, Virginia, where Edward was raised, Edward joined the United States Army. During his sojourn in the United States Army, his assignment took him to Germany where he fought in World War II for his beloved country. Shortly after an honorable discharge from the army, Edward met and married the former Dorothy R. Kimball. From this union, ten children were born. Edward had many skills. He was great at art and loved drawing, but perused work in only a few of his skilled fields, such as carpentry and baking. Also he worked for the Baltimore Gas and Electric Company. Edward was a hard working man, never missing very much time from work; even when he was ill, he still managed to go to work. Edward made numerous friends wherever he went and will be missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend. He leaves to celebrate his life: his wife, Dorothy; ten children, Deborah Workman, Russell James (Hawaii), Alan James, Sharon Chester, Arnold James, Stephanie Washington, Roslyn Polson, Muriel James, Edward James II and Michelle Wissler (Delaware); one sister, Helen Dickens (Virginia); fifteen grandchildren; four great grandchildren; three sons-in-law, Thomas Chester, James Washington, and Dean Wissler; one daughter-in-law, Renee James; two sisters-in-law, Jacquelyn White and Sandra Kimball; one brother-in-law, Ronald Kimball; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My family and I would like to express our deepest sympathy on your loss. The Bible is a wonderful source of comfort during this difficult time. It promises at Isaiah 26:19 that "Your dead ones will live...they will rise up..."##imported-begin##Sandy Sloane##imported-end##

“ Dear Family and Friends, Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. At times like this comfort is needed more than ever. Please find comfort in the scriptures. Malachi 3:16 states that Almighty God has a book of remembrance. He also promises that when he opens that book those that are in it will be brought back to life (John 5:28,29) and will never die again. Please let these scriptures comfort you in your time of need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
