

Edward P. Rascoe Jr.

September 21, 1947 - August 9, 2018

EDWARD PARKER RASCOE, JR., the son of the late Christine Lutton and Edward Parker Rascoe, Sr., was born on September 21, 1947, in Ahoskie, North Carolina. He was the oldest of thirteen children. Edward Parker Rascoe, Jr., was affectionately known as Junior or Rascoe to family and friends. After a lengthy illness, he departed this life on August 9, 2018.

Edward was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He began working at an early age and developed a great work ethic. While working at Maryland Cup Company for a period of twenty years before his retirement, he rarely called out sick. In addition to this, he worked part-time jobs to supplement his income and provide for his family.

His family was very important to him. He enjoyed taking road trips to visit family and friends near and far. Some of our fondest memories were the road trips to Georgia, Kansas, New Jersey, and St. Mary's, Prince George's, and Baltimore Counties in Maryland. He truly enjoyed keeping in touch with family and friends.

Junior was a kind, caring, and fun-loving man. He enjoyed his collection of Motown Music. Some of his other favorite pastimes were watching westerns, karate films, wrestling matches, and horror films.

We give praise and thanks, for we know that Junior is with God the father where there is no more pain and will now be reunited with his loving wife Evelyn Ponder Rascoe. He is preceded in death by his wife Evelyn, his brothers Earl Rascoe, James Rascoe, and Sammie Logan, his sisters Leslie Logan and Vicky Logan, and his daughter Sylvania. He leaves to cherish his memory: his sisters Diane Rascoe and Iris Rascoe (Chippa); his brothers Wayne Rascoe (Ruth) and Warren Alford (Vanessa); his sisters-in-law Elaine and Neicy, Corey Rascoe (Reese), Parthenia Burley, Tammey Rascoe, his baby girl Evelyn Rascoe, Raymond Brooks, Thomas Brooks, and Latonya "Twiggy" Wilkens; numerous nieces and nephews, as well as numerous grandchildren and gear-grandchildren and cherished friends Like Deron Johnson, Rodney Hall, and Olga Whitley.
