

Edward Ruggs

October 4, 1938 - February 7, 2009

Edward Ruggs, son of the late Evelyn and Edward Ruggs Sr. was born October 4, 1938 in Whatley, Alabama. He departed this life on February 7, 2009 after a lengthy illness. He received his education at Grovehill High School in Alabama and joined the army soon after graduation. Upon completion of his duties he met and married the former Josephine Poke; and out of that union nine children were born, Patricia, Debra, Rhoda, Edwina, Cynthia, Steve, Amanda, Edward Jr. and Vivian Ruggs (deceased). Later in life he married again to the late Angela Bell-Ruggs; and out of that union one child was born, Little Edward Raymond Ruggs. Everyone that had the pleasure of knowing him called him "Fargo". He was a devoted man and had a very unique sense of humor that only his friends and family would let him get away with. He was a very private person and only shared his life's journey with a chosen group of friends. He always kept himself busy doing home improvement projects and helping his neighbors when needed. He will surely be missed but never forgotten because the memories that he left behind will be cherished forever. He leaves to mourn; nine children, twenty-nine grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren; four sisters, Marie, Bessie, Georgia and Genevia; three brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends. Also remembering three brothers who preceded him in death, Willie, Frank and James Ruggs.

Tribute Wall

“ Edward Ruggs

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear loved one in death. Losing a loved one is so hard to come to terms with, and no matter how many times we go through this, we can never get used to it. That is because, Jehovah created us to live, not to die. He gave our fore-parents, Adam and Eve, a wonderful start, but because of their disobedience is the reason why we die today. Romans 5:12 says, "For just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because they had all sinned. Fortunately, God does not hold us responsible for the choice they made, but he took steps to ensure that we would have an opportunity for everlasting life. 1st Cor 15:22 says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ, all will be made alive." So through the ransom sacrifice of our dear saviour, Christ Jesus, we too can live forever; providing we show that deep faith in his precious blood that he shed in our behalf. One day our dead loved ones will be ressurected back to life, and we can be with them once again. John 11:25. May you be comforted by this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". Also, 1 Corinthians 15:26 reveals that it is Almighty God's will to destroy our enemy death. May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. The Bible holds out the wonderful promise of a resurrection (John 5:28-29, Acts 24:15) to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm 37:11,29). Continue to draw close to Jehovah the God of all comfort (2Cor 1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm 55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM