

Edward L. Smith Sr.

November 8, 1940 - December 7, 2020

Edward Leroy Smith Sr, born on November 8, 1940, was the eldest of eight siblings to the late Edward and Rose Smith (Johnson). Anita, Arthur, Vanessa, and Constance (Connie) all preceded him in death. Edward transitioned to The Father on December 7, 2020, after a courageous fight for life due to the Covid-19 virus.

Edward (Eebo) as he was affectionately known received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He attended Fredrick Douglas High School and referenced his time there as 10B2, which was his classroom number. After leaving school, he worked with his father at H. Klaff & Company for many years. He retired as a welder from Cambridge Iron & Metal.

On, October 10, 1988, he married Deborah Bland. From this union two children were born, Deborah and Edward, Jr.

Eebo was a fun-loving free spirit who was loved by all who knew him. He loved to dance and listen to Oldies but Goodies.

Those to remember him in life: daughter Deborah, son Edward, Jr., sister Catherine Pearson, three brothers Glenn, Phillip, and David; five grandchildren Shakir Terrell Jr., Chaz Romaine Williams Jr., Jeremiah, Isaiah, and Elijah Smith, four nieces Tanya, Paula, Tamika, and Sahtiya; eight nephews; Keith, Reginald, Alvin, Dwayne, Phillip Jr., Richard, Robert, and Edward. All of Baltimore, Maryland. A host of great nieces, nephews, and friends. A devoted friend Colleen Boston.

“ The last time I saw you was when I took some beautiful pictures of you and Lil Deb for her baby shower. Never thought that would be the LAST time I saw you. Thank you for being one of the earliest examples of what it is to be a father. Will ALWAYS remember you for that. I'll continue to be the best cousin I can possibly be to your children and help them to carry on your legacy. Love you Uncle Ebow - Quan
