“ My heart goes out to the family in these difficult days. Always lean on the God of all comfort who comforts us during all of our trials. He will never leave us or forsake us. He gives us this wonderful assurance: "Like a man who his mother keeps comforting, so I shall keep comforting you people." Isaiah 66:13. One day we will no longer have to say goodbye to our loved ones, because Isaiah 25:8 lets us know that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and he promises a resurrection for those who have died. One day the dead will hear the voice of Jesus, and they will come to life once again. John 5:28,29. May you find much comfort in this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Revelation 21:3,4 tells us of the end of death, tears, sorrow and pain. In addition, Acts 24:15 declares there is going to be a resurrection. May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ PUD, I can clearly remember when I called you last year prior to surgery and sharing a message that The Rev. Staccato Powell preached. Subject matter: THROUGH....After praying to God for a little more time, he opened your eyes. And, you called me and your words were, "Hey Nattt, I made it through" I will never forget that. But, I want our family to know that God was not about to allow your body to suffer. And, I heard you whisper in my ear that you made it THROUGH again. Thanks Pud for the preparation and I will truly miss you, but those memories will never die. Thank you also for charging me with keeping Hilda straight and you can rest assure, I will!! I love you.....##imported-begin##Natalie, Your Loving Neice##imported-end##

“ God saw you getting tired, When a cure was not to be, He closed His arms around you, and whispered “COME TO ME “ In tears we saw you sinking, we watched you fade away: Our hearts were almost broken, You fought so hard to stay; But when we saw you sleeping, so peacefully free from pain, We could not wish you back, To suffer that way again, So treasure him, Dear Lord , In Your garden of rest, For here on earth, He was one of the best!!###imported-begin##Hilda Carr & Family##imported-end##

“ I sit here and reflect on these last couple of weeks, I can do nothing more than be proud to be Pud's Grandaughter. He managed to squeeze 59 years of himself into 19 years of me. He's spent plenty of time molding and forming me into the young woman that he was so proud of. I can not cry anymore, I can only be inspired by lessons that I must now put into effect for my younger sisters. I can not cry anymore, for my Grandfather has spread his wings and took his final flight. We love you and always will cherish your memory.... Love Always, TaNysha (NyNy)###imported-begin##TaNysha##imported-end##

“ I shed many tears today from sadness but, now I realize he's in a better place then here on earth. He gets to be with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ which is the reward and privilege upon death. I pray to God that he will keep him safe and loved. I know He will wrap his arms around Pud and grant him peace. Even though his life ended hear on earth with us a new one will begin in his new home,Heaven! Keep your wings wrapped around us Pud.We love you, Rest In Peace. -Shaione Monique Andrews-##imported-begin##Shaione Andrews##imported-end##

“ My Pop Pop was one of the best men in my life. He always knew how to make me smile. I remember the first time he introduced me to crunchy peanut butter; I fell in love with it. He was the only one that I knew who had liked whenever I would call he would say in this strong voice how's everybody? and I would say in a squeaky little voice they're good! and he would laugh. I loved Pop Pop's style, he was a cool & hip man. I have never met someone as brave and as strong as him, he could overcome any challenging obstacle he was faced with. He wouldn't go down without a fight, and that's what I loved about him. He's in a far better place now.He's gone physically,but spiritually he will always remain in my heart.##imported-begin##Breiya C. Evans##imported-end##

“ FAREWELL MY PUD TO MY PUD, My special friend & brother-in-law My Pud, was the one that always let me know that I was as special to him as he is to me! My Pud, would always reached out to make us feel the love that he had for his whole Family. My Pud, would be the one that gave away his heart to anyone that needed him. My Pud, was the one that always gave me that big Evans SMILE wherever I saw him, that let me know I was welcome. My Pud, was the one that watched over our kids when they were small. My Pud, was the one who walked with me to the Hospital when our Lisa was born, as a stand in for his brother ( Jimmy). My Pud, sat with me and did what he could to make me feel better. That is the way My Pud was. My Pud's, spirit will always be here with Us, along with the rest of our Family Members that have joined God's Army of Angels to watch over us. He is here in each one of his children & grandchildren and most of all in Ma Ma ( Hilda, his loving wife ) . Farewell My Pud, I know you miss us too, but we ALL know that you are in the very best hands. Rest on my friend, I will see that smile in the future! Love always Dee.##imported-begin##Dee Evans##imported-end##

“ The the Family and Friends of Mr. Edward Evans, Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. The God of all comfort (1Cor1:3-5) encourages us to draw close to him in prayer and he promises to sustain us (Psalm 55:22) in our sorrow. The Bible speaks about a time in the very near future when no more sickness, death and sorrow will be no more (Isaiah 33:24; Rev. 21:3-5).
