

Edward Thomas Murrill

January 20, 1930 - February 2, 2003

Edward Thomas Murrill, Sr., son of Viola Murrill and the late Clarence Murrill, was born January 20, 1930 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on February 2, 2003 at the Perry Point Veterans Hospital. He received his education in the public schools of Baltimore City. Edward then entered the United States Air Force where he served for 20 years. He retired with the rank of Master Sergeant. Upon completion of his military service, he became a full-time employee of Greater Baltimore Medical Center and the Veterans Hospital, working as a Medical Technologist. He retired from both positions in 1982. He married the former Helen V. Totten, and out of this union five children were born. His son, Carver Van Murrill, predeceases him. He was a loving husband and father who liked to refer to himself as the godfather of the entire Murrill family. Whether you referred to him as Poppy, Eddie Boy, or Mr. Murrill, he was always a true friend and family man. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Helen V. Murrill; two daughters, Wendy Murrill Brickus and Karen Murrill-Roberts; two sons, Edward T. Murrill, Jr. and Lamont A. Murrill; his mother, Viola Murrill; two sisters, Ann E. Lemon and Grace McClain; seven brothers, Walter Jackson, Charles Murrill, Nathaniel Murrill, Joseph Murrill, Aaron Murrill, Albert Murrill and Daniel Murrill; one son-in-law, Jonathan Brickus, Jr.; three daughters-in-law, Barbara Murrill, Kimberly Murrill and Tori Murrill; four grandchildren, Ryan Murrill, Jasmine Scott, Kyla Roberts and Jonathan Brickus III; a god child, Brandy Tinkler, and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
