

Edward W. Keene

November 28, 1952 - February 22, 2006

EDWARD KEENE, SR., son of Edward Sutton and Inez Mitchell was born November 28, 1952. He departed this life on February 22, 2006 of natural causes. He received his education at Booker T. Washington High School in Baltimore, Maryland. At the age of seventeen, Edward attended Job Corp in Indiana where he continued his education and received his high school diploma. He also took up a trade as an auto mechanic. Edward worked at numerous jobs such as Lees Auto Brake Shoe Body Shop, Fish Laundry and Bethlehem Steel Ship Yard. He later in life met and married Sylvia D. Wells. Edward was affectionately called "Buttons" and was the most loving and caring person and would not mind helping anyone. He knew how to comfort people especially when their spirits were low and would give good advice to those who weren't doing right. Edward was a true believer in God and would always ask Him to order his steps in everything he did. He will be truly missed by everyone who loved and knew him. He leaves behind to cherish his memory: one son, Edward Jr.; one daughter, Alfreda; one stepson, Steve; three stepdaughters, Terra, Ronnetta and Carnella; three sisters, Mary, Inez and Ernestine; three brothers, Jerome, June, and Lenard; one daughter-in-law, Lihi; fourteen grandchildren, Edward III, Alaina, Valerie, Davughn, Mark, Tavieya, Markis, Tyshawn, Andrea, Anthony, Shaniqua, Tremaine, Katlyn; a devoted friend Roslyn Spencer and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I send my condolences to your family for your loss. Please take comfort in the Bible scripture at Acts 24:15. It tells us that there will be a "resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous". Conditions on earth will also soon be better (Rev. 21:4). I hope that these scriptures comfort you as they continue to comfort me.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ My sincere sympathy goes out to your family. May you find comfort in the resurrection hope. Jesus demonstrated the power of the resurrection at John 11:38-44. Almighty God promises to remove our enemy - death at 1Cor 15:26. With death gone forever we can look forward to paradise conditions.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to your family for your loss. Sadly, death is something we have no control over, but there is one who does, and that is Jehovah God the source of all life, Because he is all powerful and full of wisdom he can remember every detail about our loved ones who have died, and can restore them back to life. To him they are still alive in his memory. That is why John 5:28,29 tells us, "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you be comforted by God"s promises.##imported-begin##R Johnaonr##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Dear family and friends of Edward. I am very sorry to hear about the death of your loved one. Death no matter who you are is a very hard thing to go through. We can find sure comfort from the bible at Rev 21:4 were it tells of a time when there will be no more death.##imported-begin##A. Jones##imported-end##
