

Edward Wright

April 14, 1932 - March 31, 2007

EDWARD WRIGHT was born on April 14, 1932 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Lillian Wright and Cumberland Richardson. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He was baptized at Sharp Street United Methodist Church. He later married the late Joyce Stewart in 1953. Ed was employed at Sparrows Point for forty years before he retired in 1994. Known to his family and friends as “Ed,” he spent his time watching old western movies and telling jokes. You knew he liked you when he gave you his own personal nickname. His grandchildren called him “Pop-Pop.” He loved spending time with them and made sure they wanted for nothing. He would tell anybody “I work for my grandchildren.” He spent his Sunday mornings with “Man-Man” at the Farmer’s Market. He also had a favorite nephew “Boobie” who was there for him whenever he needed help. Edward leaves to mourn his passing: two sisters, Cornelia Coleman and Elaine Richardson; four brothers, Robert Wright, Paul Richardson of Montgomery, Alabama, Allen Richardson and Cumberland Richardson (Juice); seven children, Cynthia Hall, Edward D. Wright, Benjamin Wright (preceded him in death), Rudy Collins, Steven Matthews, Edward Matthews and Melvin Matthews; eleven grandchildren, Jolanda Martin, Trazena Wright (preceded him in death), Nairobi Collins, Nicole Wright, Andre Collins, Sandra Hall, Angel Smith, Gregory T. Hall Jr., Steven Matthews II, Kenneth Matthews and a granddaughter in the U.S. military; thirteen great-grandchildren, Cherelle Ward, Chantelle Wright, Jolanda Collins, Ja’Nai Townes, Alar Smith, Jr., Angel

Moss, Kamron Hall, Steven Matthews III and five more great-granddaughters; two daughters-in-law, Barbara Wright and Ernestine Matthews; two sisters-in-law, Laurease Richardson (Jackie) and Maple Richardson of Montgomery, Alabama; two grandsons-in-law, Camar Hall and Alar Smith Sr.; and a host of other relatives and friends. POP-POPEven though you left us physically, you will always be with us spiritually. The memories that we shared together will never fade. The Lord has called you home, for He knew better than we that you were going to a better place. But we will see you again one day. Love always, Jolanda, Scoot and Man

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy in your time of grief. Even though losing a loved one is difficult, you can find so much comfort in the Scriptures. At John 5:28, Jesus himself promised--"Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming when all those in the Memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." Yes, our dead loved ones can and will live again. Doesn't that warm your heart?##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##
