“ Many condolences are sent your way for the loss of your loved one. May it comfort you to know that others care about your pain, and are praying for you. Also may you find comfort from God's promise in the bible of a future resurrection. Jesus brought many back to life while he was here on the earth, and millions more will be resurrected in a very short while, according to the bible. Jehovah God promises at Rev.21:4 to wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more." May those thoughts bring you some comfort, as well as your cherished memories.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
