

Edythe Mae Taylor

September 25, 1925 - February 26, 2010

EDYTHE M. TAYLOR was born to the late James and Grace Hughes on September 25, 1925 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this world and went to be with the Lord on February 26, 2010. Edythe was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She was united in holy matrimony to the late Percy C. Taylor in Baltimore, Maryland. Shortly after, they moved to Jersey City, New Jersey where Edythe worked in the Laundry Service for several years. After the death of her daughter-in-law Fonda Hughes in 1978, Edythe and her husband moved back to Baltimore to help raise her three young grandchildren. They enjoyed many years together as a family. Edythe was a very quiet and private person but she maintained a very close relationship with her friends and neighbors. No one could tell a story quite the way that Edythe could. She was blessed with the gift of a witty sense of humor that was definitely enjoyed by her family and closet friends. Some of her hobbies included reading books and listening to a variety of music, yes even country music which was her favorite of all. Edythe would often speak about those special Labor day celebrations that she shared with her brothers and sisters. Edythe leaves many cherished memories with: her son, William Edward Hughes and his fiancée, Sandra Wooden; four sisters, Frances Jenkins, Thelma Wilder, Grace Bosworth, Gertude Litscomb (one son, six brothers and one sister preceded her death); four granddaughters, Michelle Brown, Melissa Leone, Kimberly Campbell, Tonia Duncan; ten great-grandchildren, Ayanna Brown, Toure Brown, Kwame Brown, Ariel Leone, Brittany Leone, Martez

Yancey, Moriah yancey, Mya Campbell, Christopher Duncan, Candice Duncan; five grea-grea-grandchildren, Tikiyah Bray, Taurus Bray, Ferris Rice, Nasir Brown, Camaya Tinnick; three sisters-in-law, Christine Taylor, Hattie Hughes, Cassie Hughes; two brothers-in-law, Joseph Taylor and Alvin Taylor; very devoted friend, Bertha Savage; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus bring our enemy 'to nothing'. (1Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin###Kevin Jackson###imported-end##

“ May you find comfort from God in his Word the Bible. Jesus assures us that the dead will live again. John 5:28,29. He has the keys of Death and Hades, Rev 1:8. With those keys, he will release all those dead in God's memory and restore them to life in Paradise. What a beautiful picture that we can look forward to seeing our dead loved ones again, when the earth has been made into a Paradise.##imported-begin##Leon Johnson##imported-end##
