

Effie L. Cole

November 15, 1924 - February 7, 2002

In the early morning hours of February 7, 2002, God looked over the Balcony of Glory and saw the condition of his humble servant and softly whispered; "Come unto me and I will give you eternal rest." Effie accepted the call and rose to a higher realm to be at rest with her lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Effie Lee Cole was born on November 15, 1924 in Cheraw, S.C. to Joseph & Lennie Hillian who preceded her in death. She received her formal education in S.C. Public Schools. Later she moved to Baltimore and continued her education at Douglas High School. Effie was employed with the Baltimore City Health Department. For over 20 years before retiring. She was a member of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church and was a member of several different organizations in her parish. Effie was united in holy matrimony to the late Owen Cole. Cherishing her memory: one sister, Lois Brockington of Hartsville, S.C., three stepdaughter, Louise (Ellwood) Laster of Brooklyn, N.Y., Bernice Cole of Manhattan, N.Y. & Inez (Rice) Jones of Long Beach, Ca.; two granddaughters, two grandsons, one great grandsons, a host of other relatives and friends and a devoted canine friend name LADY.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
