“Tomorrow”

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes are filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today'
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready in heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.

“ With heartfelt sympathy to the family, May you find comfort in the word of God and in the knowledge that others sympathize with you in your loss. Since this may be one of the hardest things we will ever have to cope with, the bible offers hope. Pointing to a glorious time, Isaiah 25:6 says, "God will actually swallow up death forever and God will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Please read Revel.21:3,4. It has brought comfort to many bereaved persons and myself. I pray it does the same for you.

“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Ms. Morgan Miller. The untimely death of a loved one can bring distress and heartache. Comfort and support is what we look to from our dear friends and family. Another resource for comfort is God's inspired word the bible. The words at Acts 24:15, and John 5:28,29 gives us the reassurance that one day soon by means of Jehovah God's kingdom death will be eradicated forever.
