

Eileen C. Niles

June 17, 1948 - January 15, 2019

Eileen Cyslin Niles was born on June 17, 1948 in Speyside, Tobago to Enid Johnson and Lenox Denoon. At an early age, Eileen grew up with her grandparents, Queen and Johnny Johnson after her mother died during childbirth. She always mentioned that she grew up not knowing a mother's love. Although, if you were one of her children (naturally or spiritually) you would never know it. Eileen grew up as a loving, caring and free-willed spirited child with many cousins, aunts and uncles. She received her education at the Speyside Anglican School. As a teenager, she went to live with her father, stepmother, and stepsiblings.

In 1967, Eileen moved to Trinidad where she first met her late husband Earl D. Niles. They migrated to the USA in 1970 and then married one year later in Brooklyn, New York. Eileen, known to be the "life of the party", everywhere she went, everyone followed.

On the afternoon of January 15, 2019, Eileen Niles went home to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, at Northwest Hospital in Baltimore, MD. Left to carry on her legacy of love shared with so many are her three sons: David, his wife Shamika, Phillip, his wife Nicole, and Paul and grandchildren Daisha, Josiah, Kimaya, Darien, Daniel and Micah.
