“ I am so sorry for your loss. All of us here at EPA will miss her tremendously. It was always a pleasure to come in each morning and see her smiling face. I don't know how she smiled, though, when she got to work at 6am! I will think of her every time I water the plant I made her put in her office...she was always so good at putting up with me.

“ *Elaine,
This is very hard for me to accept...you will be miss. We didn't work side by side, but when we passed in the hallway or when we social events it was a pleasure to see you smiling. We would chat for awhile, yet; she always have that smile.*

To her family; sorry for your loss but "May God Bless each of you".
