

Elaine D. Bradley

May 1, 1964 - August 18, 2006

ELAINE DENISE BRADLEY was born to Jennie Mae Bradley and Henry Lee Powell on May 1, 1964 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on August 18, 2006 after a lengthy illness. Elaine, known as “Neicy,” received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Neicy made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone she knew. She could always put a smile on your face. She enjoyed music, cooking for her family and being a devoted grandmother to her granddaughter. She leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Jennie Mitchell; father, Henry Lee Powell; one sister, Marilyn Cheezum; two brothers, Irvin Bradley and Willie Jones; one brother-in-law, Drew Cheezum; four daughters, Keonia Clark, Ashley Ash, Jasmine Bradley and Quanshé Brewington; two sons, Davin Jackson and Maurice Hunter; one granddaughter, Ar’Riana Frasier; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians chapter 15, verse 26 tells us that our enemy death will one day be done away with. There is hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15 tells us about the resurrection hope, a returning to life. When that time comes Almighty God will do away with death, sickness, sorrow and pain. (Revelation 21:4) May you receive much comfort and strength as you ponder over these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##
