

Elaine Felton- Hill

January 14, 1948 - April 27, 2002

“Around the throne of God a band of glorious Angels always stand.” God our Father, Creator of all things, who doeth all things for the good of those who love Him called from labor to eternal rest, Elaine Felton-Hill, Saturday, April 27, 2002. Elaine daughter of the late William and Minnie Felton was born on January 14, 1948, in Baltimore, Maryland. Elaine was baptized at an early age at the Calvary Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland and served in several ministries. She was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools, and completed several years of education at Coppin State College. Elaine worked for the State of Maryland in the Department of Labor, License and Regulation for twenty-five years. She was an active member of the Lupus Foundation, where she shared her testimony of her trials and triumphs living with the disease. She traveled up and down the East Coast never tiring of helping others live with the disease. Elaine was also a member of the Jazz Expressway, Dundalk Enoch Pratt Free Library Book Club, Business Manager of the Western Community Improvement Association, and she served as an Usher at Calvary Baptist Church. Wherever Elaine went, she made numerous friends. Elaine leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted son, Mark McClelland; four sisters, Geneva Alderman, Linnie Johnson, Beverly Davis, Patricia Haley; three brothers, William R., Anthony, and Dwight Felton; daughter-in-law, Nichelle McClelland; two grandchildren, many nieces, nephews, and a host of many other relatives and very dear friends. God saw you getting weaker, A cure was not to be He put His arms around you And whispered, "Come to Me" Please God keep your arms around Elaine And give her special care. Lovingly, Your Family

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##Sharon Thornton and The Thornton Family##imported-end##
