

Elaine Frances Fowler

January 9, 1946 - April 21, 2008

ELAINE FRANCES FOWLER, daughter of the late Lawrence Bailey and the late Mary Frances Berry, was born on January 9, 1946 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She departed this life on April 21, 2008 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Eastern High School in Baltimore and later went on to college to seek her B.A. She became employed at General Motors for several years then went on to explore other work opportunities. Elaine accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at Simmons Memorial Baptist Church and to assured her daughter, Vera, she rededicated herself in August of 2006. Elaine made numerous friends wherever she went. Elaine (known as The Big E) always had something to say or to joke about; her smile, laughter, and willingness to help are some of the things that will be truly missed. When you saw Elaine, you knew to get ready for good laughter and to get your wallet out. She will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She leaves to mourn: five daughters, Shirley Chirelle Bailey-Thompson (Wayne Thompson²), Shawnetta Fowler, Kocine Bryant (Greg Bryant), Vera Akinola (James Akinola), and Stormi Johnson; brother, David Gault (Shirley Gault); three sisters, Emma Cousin, Ruth Cousin, and Malvina Thompson; twelve grandchildren, Wayne, Rodney, Deshawn, Demetric, Isaiah, Dauris, Myesha, Kelisha, Alana, Shaneka, Shemeira, Demesha, Oluyinka, Giovanna and Ashyra; four great-grandchildren, Dayonna, Kendell, Kamairah, and Lyric; best friends, Vera, James, Joyce, Reggie, Ernestine, Herman, Linda, James, Tassin, Huggie, Jamie, and Niecy; two special nurses, Liberty and Linda; and a host of relatives and friends.

“ To our niece Stormi, her sisters, and to all of the extended family: Mere words are so inadequate at this time to express our extremely deep and our heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your mother. May it help you to know that your mother is finally at peace and free from the pain, the cares, and the heartaches of this life and is at Home with the Lord. May it also help you to know that many loved ones are praying for you at this time. May our God and Saviour continue to go with you through this valley of heavy sorrow. It was on May 22, 2007 that our own mother went Home to be with the Lord. I am a living witness that if each one of you will give your heavy burden of sorrow to the Lord, He will dry all your tears and He will heal all your broken hearts. To all of you we pray that you might come to know and daily live in the full experience of the abundant, the boundless, always so very wonderful and truly amazing love of Christ, Who is our kind Master, our Saviour, and Lord (Ephesians 3:14-21) from your Aunt Karen and from your Aunt Ellen (Auntie), your Uncle William, your Aunt Brenda, your cousins Von Eric Johnson and Shirelle Lawrence and also from Jesse Johnson, your father, too##imported-begin##Karen D Hamilton##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what’s more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is to come.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
