

Elaine Gladney

July 28, 1946 - November 13, 2009

ELAINE GLADNEY departed this earth on November 13, 2009 due to a lengthy illness. She resided at 933 Dantrey Court, where she lived and was cared for by her family. She was born on July 28, 1946 to James L. Gladney and Louise Stevenson here in Baltimore, Maryland. She was educated through the Baltimore City Public School System and attended Fairmount Hill High School. She was the cornerstone to her children. If you ever met her you would surely never forget her. To her family, friends and even strangers she would give a helping hand. She could never say “no” to those she loved. She was a religious woman. She believed in the Lord deeply. She loved music, watching her favorite television shows, the westerns, Lifetime and Sunday Morning Gospel and most of all her family. For the first time she may have said “no” but God said, “Yes, My child you will hurt no more.” For those of us who knew her she was an advisor, confidant, friend, “Our Rock.” Her smile, laughter, and cooking will surely be missed. Those smiling eyes have closed for the last time. She leaves to mourn: three children, Richard D. Walker Sr., Antonio Troy Sr. and Felicia Taylor; two brother, James and Jessie Gladney; two sisters, Shelia and Kathryn Gladney; one daughter-in-law, Renae Troy; six grandchildren, Richard D. Walker Jr., Denise Walker, Antonio Troy Jr., Richard D. Walker 1st, Michael Troy, Alicia Elaine Maddox; and a great-granddaughter, Amani; great uncle, Jim Woodard; great-aunt, Rosie Canty; best friend and family member, Carolyn Boone; goddaughter, Dwanda Fulton; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Elaine Gladney

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I have known Elaine for at least 36 years. Elaine was a very special person with a very warm kind, and giving heart. Elaine's 2nd born son (Tony), and my son (Tony), have been best friends since they were 7 and 4 years old. Elaine's daughter (Felicia), and my daughter (Carlishia), were best friends from pre-k (ages 3 yrs.), until on into elementary school. Elaine will be deeply and greatly missed by all who knew her. To know Elaine was to love Elaine. I will remember Elaine forever in my heart. Elaine, rest in eternal peace with our dear LORD and Savior my good friend. Tearfully,
Sandhi###imported-begin###Ms. Sandhi###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 9:36-41 reports on a loving and generous woman named Tabitha (Dorcas) who died and was brought back to life. Those verses confirm that Jehovah God (Psalm 83:18) through his only-begotten son Jesus Christ (John 17:3) will resurrect many. May this comfort and strengthen you in the days ahead.###imported-begin###Sharon Hill###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ May God's loving-kindness and blessings be with you during this time of sorrow. Know that one day sickness and death will be gone forever. Rev 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." That scripture is no mere fantasy, because everything Jehovah purposes to do, he never fails to carry out. At Isaiah 65:17 he promises a new earth, and these former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart. Yes a peaceful new world is definitely coming, not through the efforts of men, but only through God's kingdom. Imagine a world of peace with no violenc, sickness, or death. I am a bible teacher, and I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address so that we can further discuss God's wonderful purpose. Much comfort to you and your family for your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM