

ELAINE THOMAS

May 20, 1944 - March 12, 2020

ELAINE M. THOMAS, daughter of the late Bertha Marshall and Bob Worsham, was born May 15, 1944 in Blackstone, VA. She departed this life on March 12, 2020 after her struggle with COPD (lung failure).

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, where she studied nursing and later went on to work as a registered nurse (RN) at Seton Hill Manor. Then she later retired. While committed to raising her grandkids and gardening, Ms. Elaine loved to listen to music and party. She loved a good cookout! She will truly be missed!

Bertha Marshall (her mother), Denise Johnson (her daughter), Samuel Johnson (her son), Arthur Johnson (her husband), Antwan Dorsey (her grandson) and Bryson Love (her great-grandson), all proceed her in death.

She leaves to mourn, one brother, Albert Johnson; three children, Charles Johnson, Diane Johnson and Desiree Miller; nine very special grandkids, David, Darren, Steven and Tia Johnson, Andre Dorsey, Latrice, Larry, LaToya and Lamont Carlos; thirteen great-grandkids and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Elaine and I grew up together in Baltimore many years ago. I can always think of Elaine loving to sing. Although we all loved you God loved you more and he knew when it was time to call you home.
