“ Dear Family, Please accept my sincere condolences. I have never met Elanda, but two things caught my attention about her: we are around the same age and I also am one of Jehovah's Witnesses. We share that hope of a peaceful earth and the termination of sickness, death, sorrow and pain.(Isaiah 33:24, Matthew 5:5 and Revelation 21:3-5)More importantly, the hope of meeting Elanda in the paradise and your reuniting with her is open to us. May we daily continue to do what Jehovah requires and obey what his only-begotten son Jesus tells us to do. Sincerely, Sharon Hill, Edmondson Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses###imported-begin###Sharon Hill###imported-end###

“ Though I did not know Elanda personally we are bonded in the faith. How loving a God Jehovah is that Elanda had the opportunity to come to love and know Jehovah. We can draw comfort to know though she have cease to dwell among us she knew her sleep will be temporary. How bless she is to know what Jehovah purpose is for those who are lost to death that soon she will be back among us all in God's new order where peace, happiness and everlasting life will encompass the earth. So may Jehovah bring the comfort to the family and hold dear to the promised hope that is soon to result upon the earth where Elanda will one day soon see the promised blessing of her resurrection a reality to behold. “ To family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences after the death of out sister. It is so wonderful that she remained a faithful servant of Jehovah for so many years. Yet, we are still subject to the enemy, death and because of the actions of our forefather Adam, we are still being touched by it. I know that our sister believed in Jesus' promise to resurrect the righteous ones to a paradise earth. I look forward to meeting her there. Agape###imported-begin##Senita Swann###imported-end##
