

Elbert Parker Jr.

October 25, 1937 - December 13, 2017

Today we honor Elbert Parker, Jr. He was born in Hartford, North Carolina to the late Elbert Parker, Sr. and Ida Ayers Parker on Oct. 25, 1937. He entered into eternal rest on December 13, 2017 at home at the age of 80 with his family by his side.

Elbert joined Jerusalem Baptist Church at an early age. Elbert Parker, Jr., was a loving and caring man who never met a stranger. Anyone who knew him, knew how much he loved people, and how much he loved helping them. He loved to talk, listen to music, sing and he loved fast cars. He often visited the sick until his health declined.

Over the years he was employed at the Newport News Shipyard and Westvaco. He was a retiree of Philip Morris USA.

Elbert was an excellent father and grandfather. When God handed out fathers he gave our family one of his very best. He was also a good husband that loved his entire family very much.

He leaves to cherish his memories, wife of 56 years Algernon M. Parker; two sons, Elbert III (Wanda), and Curtis Charity (Viola); five daughters, Mignon, Shelley Taylor (Clyde), Jocelyn Jones, Marilyn Brown, Barbara Quivers (Kevin), and Connie Jones who preceded him in death in 1996; twenty grandchildren; twenty-two great-grandchildren; and a host of loving and caring nieces, nephews, and devoted friends. Among the devoted friends were: The very devoted family of Edith Ghee, Clyde Allen (Mook), Wendell Baker, and William Quivers (Bidly).

In the words of our Dad's favorite gospel song:

Precious Lord, take my hand, lead me on, let me stand, I am tired, I am weak, I am worn, Through the storm, Through the night, Lead me on through the light. Take my hand precious Lord lead me home. When My way grows drear, Precious Lord, linger near, When my life is almost gone, At the river I will stand, Guide my feet, Hold my hand, Take my hand, Precious Lord and lead me home.
