

Elbert L. Williams

January 6, 1954 - July 16, 2016

Elbert Lee “Big Al” Williams, son of late James Williams and Dorothy Turner, was born on January 6, 1954 in Newport News Virginia. He departed this life after battling a serious illness on July 16, 2016.

Elbert received his education in Baltimore city public schools and graduated from Northern High School. In 1971, he joined the Marines where he served for two years. He was a hardworking man most of his life until his illness made him unable. He had held several jobs but worked for Armco Steel for many years. Over time he worked as a mason, a truck driver and a construction worker.

Elbert was a party animal. He loved to cut a rug and have a good time. He also loved to ride the city. There was no telling where “Big Al” would be spotted. If you knew him you knew he would have a cold one between his legs. He was so East Baltimore known to be on Biddle Street. He loved and raised his kids like a grown man, and boy did Big Al love his grandkids. His daughter Stink Stink Nikkia was his shining light in the dark. He showed tough love to his son Lil Al his twin.

Over the years Big Al was known as a ladies man. The ladies loved Big Al and they loved him back. In 1993 he met his true love Deborah Williams. They exchanged wedding vows March 11th 1995 and remained together until he closed his eyes in death.

He will truly be missed. He is preceded in death by his mother Dorothy Turner, his father James Williams; his sisters Ruby Williams and Raynell Freeman and his brother David Williams.

Elbert leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife; Deborah Williams: one daughter Nikkia Williams, one son Albert Williams: A stepdaughter Donyel Rogers, two sisters Roslyn Williams and Roxanne Roberts: two sister in laws Karen Powell, Margaret Williams: brother in law Marcus Williams. Forever Goddaughter Karen Moore: special best friend, cousin/sister Lisa Stancil: two nephews cousins and friends: two aunts one uncle and 12 grandchildren.
