“ I first met Eleanor when I was just a teenager. She is one of the first people to ever tell me that God loved me and she showed me Jesus. I confess I would hide from her at times because I didn't want to hear from the bible, until one day my heart was changed. I moved to the complete opposite side of Baltimore (from east to west) and still ran into her. She was like an angel to me. One day I too understood who Jesus was and then ran into her again and started attending church with her. After about 1 year, I moved away and never saw her again. In 2020, my mom ran into her and gave me her phone number. I called her and she told me that she was praying for God to send back all her children so she would know how they were doing. That prayer was answered! She is in glory now praising Jesus!!! I pray for her family and friends as I know she will be missed!
