

Eleanor C. Clark

September 8, 1917 - February 5, 2004

Eleanor Cynthia Clark, daughter of the late Mary and James Clark, was born on September 8, 1917 in Baltimore, Maryland. Eleanor lived to be the eldest of five living generations. On February 5, 2004 God removed Eleanor from the cares of this world. Eleanor received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She was formally employed at Charles Andell Perfume Factory and a laundry facility. Due to a job injury Eleanor was not able to perform her normal work duties. She then went on to provide day care for her grandchildren. She later became the caretaker of her uncle, Charles Gaskins. Eleanor, also known as "Aye," was a very strong-willed and outspoken person. Those who truly knew her found her to be kind-hearted, humorous and sincere. Eleanor was a true Orioles fan...she also enjoyed doing word puzzles, watching TV game shows, listening to country music and visiting family and friends. Eleanor had a strong bond with her siblings; her two sisters Amanda and Bertha, her three brothers who preceded her in death were Albert, Arthur and Lewis. Eleanor and her two sisters raised their younger brother, Lewis. Eleanor's greatest challenge was raising her six children, James, Shirley, Mary (deceased), Josephine, Cynthia and Mildred (deceased). She also took on the responsibility of raising two granddaughters, Vernell and Maxine. Eleanor also had four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren who preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory: one son, James Clark; three daughters, Shirley Eppes, Josephine Kane and Cynthia Bailey; a devoted granddaughter and caretaker, Vernell Clark; twenty-three grandchildren, forty-six great grandchildren; twenty-four great-great grandchildren; two sisters, Amanda Powell and Bertha Hunt; two sons-in-law, Allen Kane and Ernest Eppes; one sister-in-law, Pauline Gaskins; nieces and nephews, a special cousin, Lillian; three special friends, Mary Payne, Hunty and Vera; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Grandmother “Aye” as my daughter called her. My heart is heavy again thinking about my Queen. She literally lit my heart up. I still can't come to grips over her passing. She was truly my everything .

“ Today I'm thinking of her smile and laughter. She was always there for me when no one else was. We would talk about everything...she shared things with me that were very personal. I will never ever forget the special relationship we had. To say I miss her is an understatement. I still cry sometimes thinking of her. I love her with every beat of my heart. May she continue to rest in peace.

“ It's 12 years since her passing. I will never forget the kindness she has always shown me. Even on her death bed she kept asking was I okay. A piece of me died a void that no one can ever fill. My favorite grandmother always. May she continue to rest in peace.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.###imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
