

Eleanor Hughes

September 12, 1913 - July 19, 2002

Very quietly and peacefully, on Friday, July 19, 2002, Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, gently closed the eyes of our beloved Eleanor Hughes and entered her into eternal rest. Eleanor Hughes (b.k.a. Aunt Ellie) was born on September 12, 1913 from the union of the late George and Lucille Braxton. Eleanor was born in Lutherville, Maryland and was educated in Baltimore county Schools. In 1935, she moved to New York City and remained there for fifteen years. Aunt Eleanor, as she was affectionately known, was a quiet, warm and loving person. She was a private, deep-thinking person who enjoyed her life. Upon her return to Baltimore, Maryland, she married Rev. Joseph Hughes. Eleanor held numerous jobs in the nursing field; one of many was at Johns Hopkins Hospital as a nursing assistant. She also worked at Stella Maris Hospice until she retired in 1987. She also was a very diligent worker at St. Ann's church as an Eucharistic Minister, going about to serve those who could not help themselves. She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Rose R. Dropsy; her son, Bernard Brampton; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
