

Elerbey Pringle Sr.

November 26, 1927 - December 20, 2017

Elerbey Pringle, Sr. was born November, 26, 1927 to the late Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Pringle in Hemingway, South Carolina. On Wednesday, December 20, 2017 after a prolonged but courageous battle with serious illness, God called Elerbey to peace everlasting. He is also preceded in death by his brother, William Edward Lewis.

Elerbey was a veteran who served honorably in the United States Army.

Deacon Pringle was baptized here at Moore Street, where he served for more than twenty five years as a deacon, an active church school participant and youth teacher. He was passionate about electronics and gadgets of all types. Much of his military and civilian life was focused on the study of electronics and repairing any type of electronic device.

Deacon Pringle touched the lives of many people, and his desire to help others was rivaled only by his love for God, family and Moore Street Missionary Baptist Church.

Elerbey leaves to cherish his memories, his wife of 69 years, the former Jessie Mae Frierson; two sons, Elerbey, Jr. (Marlene) and Leverne (Lisa); seven grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; a host of other relatives, friends and a loving church family.

“ I'm sorry to hear about your loss. Soon sickness and death will end forever mentioned at Isaiah 25:8 and Isaiah 33:24. Please accept my sincere condolences

“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear loved one in death. May your hearts be comforted. Death was never God's purpose, and one day he promises to end sickness and death forever. In the book of Revelation chap 21 verse 4 he promises: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. " in verse 5 he says, "Look!, I am making all things new." Yes, there is a new day dawning where no one will ever get sick. At that time no one will ever die again. Those who have already died will be brought back to life. Jesus said" Do not be amazed at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May your hearts be comforted by those wonderful promises.
