“ My prayers are with this family. I remember the good times Sonia and I had with the Thompson family from Booth Street. She were funny and loved children. May God bless this family and walk in good faith.

“ Condolences to the Tucker family, husband, sons and grandchildren of Sonia. As neighbors we always saw each other coming and going but those brief moments of conversation were part of a routine. I also was privileged to observe her interaction with her family and the love and respect was evident. I pray that love along with the love of Christ continues to resonate within the heart of your loved ones and they will be strengthened in the days to come....
