

Elijah Kyron Williamson

August 2, 2005 - November 5, 2008

Our beloved Elijah Kyron Williamson of Richmond, Virginia was born August 2, 2005. God wanted a new angel to become part of His Kingdom, so he called baby Elijah on November 5, 2008. He was the youngest child of two, born to parents Domonique and Marshall "Randy" Williamson, Jr. He was preceded in death by his great-grandparents, Richard Crump, Doris Wilson and Cecil Williamson. Elijah attended Kings Kids Academy. He loved playing football, riding his John Deere tractor and cutting grass. He also enjoyed watching Kangaroo Jack and Alvin and the Chipmunks. Elijah loved life to the fullest. He attended First Shiloh Baptist Church and enjoyed playing with his big sister Shania. He leaves memories to his loving parents, Domonique and Marshall Williamson, Jr.; sister, Shania Johnson; grandparents, Vanessa and Lee Majors, Marshall Williamson, Sr., Paula Wilson, and James Crump; great-grandparents, Dorothy and Samuel Jackson, Pearl Crump, Marcella Robinson, and Comer Wilson, Sr.; devoted great aunt Carliss Alexander (James) and Marjorie Dixon (Carlee); special cousin, Katina Mister (Gregory); aunts and uncles, Jamesha Wyche, Jashia Crump, Antoine Wilson and Joie Wyche; great uncles, Galen Jackson, Derrick Wilson (Michelle), Daryl Wilson, Comer Wilson, Jr., and Alphonso Wilson; godmothers, Leticia Mosby and Jessica Moseley; godfather, Jarrell Johnson; godsister, Kemauria Coleman. Also survived by a multitude of loving aunts, uncles, cousins, other family members and friends.

“ My family and I offer our deepest sympathy to Elijah's family and friends. As you reflect on his life and draw comfort from your precious memories, remember God, who is the source of life, has given us a source of comfort doing times like these. The hope of the resurrection mentioned at Acts 24:15. We can find comfort in this hope because Hebrews 6:18 tells us it is impossible for God to lie. Let him be your source of comfort.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Our family extends our deepest sympathy to you in the loss of Elijah. We cannot imagine the amount of pain and unbelief that you are in, but please know that you are continually in our prayers. When things of this nature happen, it leaves us feeling empty, angry, and wondering why. Please know that we are here for you and your family. If you need anything, don't hesitate to call upon us. Remember, weeping may endure for a night but joy will come.... God Bless!##imported-begin##Shiron Sr. and Melanie Hamlin##imported-end##

“ Dear Williamson Family, I do not know any of you, but I was at St. Mary's on Wednesday night and I am sure I saw you there. The absolute anguish of Elijah's mother will never leave my memory. I did not have time to react to the situation - you were leaving as we were coming in. I wish that I had offered you some comfort, even though it would not have changed anything. The ER staff was so sad... I saw Elijah's obituary and he looks so much like his mom... I am so sad for you and have thought about you often since Wednesday. You are all in my prayers. I am so very sorry for your loss.###imported-begin###Sally San Soucie###imported-end###

“ To the Williamson Family(esp. Marshall Jr.): I am so sorry for the loss of your Elijah and I know that this is a painful thing to experience. I wish that I or someone could do something to change things for you all. HOWEVER---I do know that even though God will not bring Elijah back, He can and will fix things. He can and will make life easier to bear and He will, in time heal the grieving heart. I will continue to pray for you.
