“ May the loving and caring thoughts of others help you to cope in the days ahead. No matter how many of our loved ones we bury, death is something that we can never get used to. That's because God never intended for us to die, but to have everlasting life. This is why Jehovah sent us his only-begotten son Jesus, so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life. John 3:16. One day, by means of a resurrection, the dead will come back to life once again, and live the way God intended for them to live; in peace and happiness forever. May your precious memories of Elise live on in your hearts until that glorious day of the resurrection arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
