

Elisha Robertson

November 21, 1927 - June 10, 2009

Mr. Elisha Robertson, Jr., the fifth of nine children born to his parents, the late Reverend Elisha Robertson, Sr. and Irene Campbell Robertson, was born on November 21, 1927 in Laurens, South Carolina. He departed this life on June 10, 2009 at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. He received his education in the Laurens County Public Schools. He obtained certification as an auto mechanic and served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War. After relocating to Baltimore, Maryland, Elisha worked at a brickyard, drove a cab and worked and retired from Bethlehem Steel Corporation. Always a good and hard worker, Elisha rose from a Crane Operator to a Blast Furnace Operator at Bethlehem Steel Corporation. Although he did not attend church regularly, Elisha had God in his heart. He loved to help people and had a heart of gold. If you really needed him, he would come. Elisha met the mother of his son, Eula Lorraine Jackson in 1957. From this union, their son Elisha Robertson III was born in 1959. Eula preceded him in death. In addition to his parents and Eula, Elisha was also preceded in death by his brother, Floyd Robertson and sisters, Flossie Mae Cooper, Roxie A. Mitchell House and Margaret V. Motes. He leaves to cherish his memory: his son, Elisha Robertson III; one brother, Bennie Lee Robertson; three sisters, Lola M. Matthews of Laurens, SC, Sarah V. Murphy and C. Lucille Robertson of Brooklyn, NY; two granddaughters, two great-grandsons and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
