

Eliza Myers

September 15, 1916 - April 24, 2017

Eliza Mae Jackson Myers, daughter of the late Beverly Linwood Banks and Margaret Laura Banks Jackson, was born on September 15, 1916 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this world on the evening of April 24, 2017 after 100 years of life.

"Buck", as she was affectionately called, attended the Baltimore Public Schools: Dunbar Junior High School and Douglass High School. She spent several summers as a cook on Maryland's Eastern Shore. She was also employed as a domestic, seamstress and an upholsterer in a furniture company. In the 1980s, she added to her skill set by completing certificate programs, including Keypunching the National Caucus and Center of Black Aged, Incorporated and New Careers in Housing Management Services Training Program for Older Workers.

On October 15, 1943 she married Louis Henry Myers in Towson, Maryland. He preceded her in death in 1992. From that union they had one son Louis.

Eliza made many friends wherever she went and served as a caregiver to many. She was also well known at both the Belvedere Green Apartments and the Good Samaritan Nursing Center. She was an avid Orioles fan and amazing cook.

She leaves to mourn her: one and only son, Louis Beverly Myers; her beloved daughter-in-law, Audrey Yvonne Williams-Myers; her favorite grandchild, Dr. Alyson Kemba Myers all of Elmhurst, New York; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
