

Elizabeth Ann Dangerfield

August 24, 1930 - November 13, 2008

A Time To Be Born ELIZABETH ANN DANGERFIELD, daughter and only child of the late Geneva and Lawrence Chisolm, was born on August 24, 1930 in Buckhannon, West Virginia. A Time To Die Elizabeth Ann left behind the joys and pains of this world on Thursday, November 13, 2008 after completing her work for the Lord. She endured a lengthy illness, but never wavered in spirit or faith during this time. A Time To Plant "Mama Liz", as she was affectionately called by everyone, graduated from Riverside High School in Elkins, West Virginia, where she was crowned Ms. Riverside in 1946 after graduating. She furthered her education in Baltimore, Maryland where she attended Cortez Peters Business School, H&R Block Tax Accounting School and Essex Community College. Mama Liz worked in private industry for eight (8) years. In 1968, she began her career with the State of Maryland where she worked for thirty (30) years until her retirement. A Time To Love Mama Liz married James Neal in 1950. She later met and married the late George Dangerfield, Sr. who predeceased her in death in 2005. Mama Liz had five children: the late James Neal, the late Janice Jackson, Donald Neal, Robin Neal and George Dangerfield, Jr. (all of Baltimore, Maryland). She also has one stepdaughter, Wanda Dangerfield. A Time For Salvation Mama Liz became a member of the Eastern United Methodist Church in the early 1960s. She was an active member for as long as her health permitted. Mama Liz had a passion for helping people. She would find homes, provide aid and food for the homeless. She made herself available always for each and every member of her family and their friends as well. Mama Liz loved to watch detective movies on television and spent her years after retiring with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She enjoyed laughing and always had something funny to share. A Time To Remember Mama Liz leaves her children to cherish and mourn her memory: the late James Neal and Janice Jackson, Donald Neal, Robin Neal, George Dangerfield, Jr. and Wanda Dangerfield; mother-in-law, Mary Dangerfield; son-in-law, Robert Jackson; brother-in-law Ricky Dangerfield; two sisters-in-law, Linda Dangerfield and Marie Wells; a host of grandchildren (17) and great-grandchildren (21); a special granddaughter, Angela Jackson; two special cousins, Donnie Williams and Mary Martin; three lifelong friends, Esther James, Sidney White and Lillian Bishop; a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

“ in light of the recent death of your dear loved one, I send my sincere condolences. I'll just leave a short message of comfort and hope for Mrs. Dangerfield's family and friends. the Bible shows that for all who would like to see Mrs. Dangerfield again, this is possible. John 5:28,29 gives that hope. to be there at that time, the Bible shows that God requires something of you, that being your obedience now. that's shown at Proverbs 3:5,6 there's so much to bring us comfort and hope from God's word, we just need to read and study so as to know what he wants from us. please contact me at my e-mail address: commander9195@verizon.net##imported-begin##kathy commander##imported-end##

“ Robin & George, I just found out your Mom passed. I am so, so, so sorry. I can still hear her voice. May the memories continue to hold you two together. I am even more shocked and saddened to hear about your dad and Janice. Robin, please know you are still in my thoughts often. Jeana.##imported-begin##Jeana L. Anderson##imported-end##
