

Elizabeth Ann Graves

September 30, 1950 - July 7, 2007

For we walk by faith, not by sight. II Corinthians 5:7 Elizabeth Ann Graves, daughter of the late Nesbitt H. and Sarah Buckson, was born September 30, 1950 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on July 1, 2007 at Union Memorial Hospital. Elizabeth gave her life to Christ at an early age being baptized at Israel Baptist Church. She later rededicated her life to Christ at Grace Baptist Church. Elizabeth was affectionately called "Ann" by all who knew her. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and attended college. Ann worked in several capacities with different companies before settling at Neighborcare where she retired in 2005 to care for her ailing husband, Charles Graves who preceded her in death on November 16, 2005. Ann was very family oriented and frequently hosted gatherings at her home for family and friends to socialize. She was outspoken, sassy, brassy and a lovable person to all who knew her and being in her company you were sure to laugh. Ann was an avid traveler, liked playing cards and enjoyed shopping. Ann's grandchildren, nieces, nephews and the youth that came in contact with her were special to her heart, her house was never without young people and the sound of joy. Ann leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Linwood Buckson; daughter-in-law, Paula, Jermaine Davis, Kavon Graves and Raoul; daughters, Denise and Keisha Graves; loving grandchildren, Deaunte, Linwood Jr., Michelle, Deandre, Koron, Tyler and A'Zoey; great-granddaughter, Danae; mother-in-law, Ruth Graves; loving and devoted brothers, Nesbitt Buckson Jr. (Virginia Beach, Virginia), Sylvester Buckson, Ronald Buckson, Marion Buckson and Thomas J. Buckson Sr.; sisters-in-law and friends, Pamela Buckson, Victoria Buckson and Robin Buckson; dedicated sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, Lois Taylor and husband, Melvin Taylor, Bea Sullivan, Bonnie and Douglass, Elaine Graves, Pamela Dennis, Carol and Edward Brooks, Kim and Steven Armstrong and Barbara and Charlie Griffin of Pemberton, New Jersey; and a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, and cousins; including her sister-in-friendship and love, Brenda Marshall and special friends, Joanie Baines and Kenneth Yow.

“ To the family of Elizabeth Ann Graves I just read about the recent death of your love one. I am deeply concerned about the sorrow and distress that you must be experiencing. I have some GOOD NEWS to share with you regarding loss. The Bible promises us that we will have the opportunity to see our dear love ones again. At John 5:28, 29 Jesus Christ assures us that “everyone in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out”. The promise of a resurrection is held out to all those falling asleep in death (Acts 24:15). Jehovah God has promised obedient mankind at Revelation 21:1-4 that very soon pain, sickness and yes even death will be no more, because according to 1John 4:8 “God is love”. I sincerely hope these words brought your family comfort##imported-begin## Louise Hibbler##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Graves' family and friends. The loss of one so dear is very painful and difficult to bear; that's why the Bible calls death an enemy. In God's loving kindness He will do away with that enemy and then "many in the ground of dust will wake up." Daniel 12:2, 1 Corinthians 15:26. It is my sincere hope this will comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of Elizabeth. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span was 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:27.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
