“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please read these verses and feel free to contact me to discuss this wonderful provision further.###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ I send my deepest sympathy to the family for the loss of Elizabeth. May you be comforted by the hope of the resurrection. One day our loved ones will live again, because they will be raised up from the graves, back to everlasting life. Jehovah God didnot desire sickness and death for us, and he promises to do away with this enemy forever. 1st Cor 15:26 promises: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." I never once believed that God meant for us to live here only a short while, and then sickness, accidents, or some other tragedy would take us away, and when I learned of God"s marvelous purpose through a bible study; it all made sense. One day, our loved ones will come to life again, believe that. And if we are faithful and obedient people, we will definitely see them again. Take care famil, and trust in Jehovah and Jesus with all your hearts, because they have the ways out from death. Psalm 68:20 Please be comforted.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I wish to extend my heartfelt condolences to you for the loss of Mrs. Artis. Ezekiel 18:32 reveals that Almighty God does not "take any delight in the death of someone", in fact Isaiah 25:8 states that God will "actually swallow up death forever". Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly declares that "there is going to be a resurrection" for our dead loved ones. May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
