

Elizabeth Bartz

December 1, 1914 - January 12, 2012

ESTELLA ELIZABETH BARTZ, daughter of the late Samuel and Estella Johnson, was born on December 1, 1914 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life peacefully on January 1, 2012.

She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School and received her high school diploma from Frederick Douglass High School. After graduating, she trained for two years at Provident Hospital to become a nurse. She was a dedicated and lifelong member of St. Gregory's Catholic Church where she served in The Guild.

In her young adult life she met Floyd Lee Bartz whom she married in 1933. From this union two children were born, Gary Lee Bartz and Tora Paulette Bartz

Estella was fondly known as "Liz" and had a heart of gold. She was an avid jazz lover and worked for many years as the bookkeeper in her husband's jazz club, The North End lounge. She enjoyed cooking, making her famous "rice pudding," spending time with her family and listening to her music. Liz was a brother, Irving.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Gary Bartz (Nusia), Tora Bartz (Anthony), one sister, Jeannette Harvey, eight grandchildren, Farid Bartz

(Cynthia) Halimah Thomas, Qasim Thomas (Melina), Rashida Bess (Bryan), Taifa Bartz, Adia Bartz, thirteen great grandchildren, Eric Berryman, Cierra Mitchell, Bilal Bartz Faraji Bartz, Brandon Jones, Idira Thomas, Dante Smith, Ayana Smith, Hakim Bartz , Taisha Mahoney, Tiniqua Mahoney and Domonique Bess, one great great grandson, Carsen, five special nieces, Paula, Mary, Beverly, Rona and Kae, two special nephews, Michael and James, one best friend, Marhta, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

We cherished the moments we had with Sister Bartz as we visited weekly. She loved music and often spoke of Gary and his music. We prayed and laughed together. My mother and Sister Bartz often shared their meals together at Chapel Hill. God truly blessed her life.
