

Elizabeth Angela Beaver

October 30, 1956 - March 9, 2018

Elizabeth Angela Beaver was born to the late Anna and Andrew Jones on October 30, 1956 in Petersburg, Virginia. She was raised in the Salem and Roanoke communities, but would relocate to Richmond later in life and came to call this area home. She would transition to Heaven from Highland Springs at the young age of 61 on March 9, 2018.

She received her education and graduated from Andrew Lewis High School in Salem, Virginia. She furthered her education and attended a community college for one year. She was known as Angie to her friends or just mom as she was called by her children.

Angie formerly worked for the Richmond City Sheriff's Office as a deputy sheriff with 20 years of dedicated service. Upon retirement, she continued to live for her family. Prior to her health failing, she often would speak about renovating her home and building a treehouse.

She focused her life on caring for her two daughters and grandchild. Her life revolved around spending time with family and always enjoyed fellowship and gatherings. She was very close to her granddaughter Na'deja whom she adored. They could never get enough of each other.

Angie was very focused and independent. She never wanted you to help her to do anything. She was a God fearing woman that always knew how to call on her Heavenly Father first. In her leisure, she enjoyed quilting. She will truly be missed and now she joins the rest of the family cheering her loved ones on from Heaven. Her prayers still remain here in the earth and all will be answered.

She will be remembered as a kind, caring, considerate mother, grandmother, sister and friend, always thinking of others first. Angie was indeed one of the most precious gifts God has given us.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory two devoted daughters, Ebony and Turkesa Beaver; son, Michael Jackson; adored granddaughter, Na'deja Beaver; two caring sisters, Velma Jones and Donna Lowery (Winslow); and a host of other relatives and friends, among them devoted cousin and best friend, Pamela Williams.
