On August 22, 1934, Elizabeth Broady was born to the Kate Robert and Rosa Broady, in Richmond, Virginia. On Wednesday, February 20, 2008, she departed this life to enter into the presence of God. Elizabeth was affectionately called Emo (Mother) by her children and Sava (Grandmother) by her grandchildren. At a young age she left Richmond, Virginia to marry Frank B. Carter in Baltimore, Maryland. Out of this union eight children were born. Frank preceded Elizabeth in death. During her life she worked as a domestic, however, most of the time she was a homemaker, Elizabeth loved and had a personal relationship with the Lord. She enjoyed reading her favorite scripture, Psalms 23, and singing songs of worship and praise. Her well-known greeting was "Praise the Lord". She told her children and grandchildren that they have to always love one another. She was a joy to be around and was truly a diamond in the rough who loved her family deeply. Elizabeth leaves to cherish her memory; eight children, Nathaniel E. Carter, George Carter, Daniel Carter, Sodiell Ben Yehudah, Betty E. King, William W. Carter, Irvin Carter and Patty Q. “ To the family: I would like to express my condolences in the recent loss of Ms. Carter. At a time like this no one can comfort us more than our creator who promises to "Swallow up death forever and wipe our tears" at Isa 25:8 and Rev 21:4. May these words bring you hope and comfort during this time.##imported-begin##T.Taylor##imported-end##
