

Elizabeth Freda Carter

January 7, 1918 - March 6, 2015

Elizabeth Freda Carter, daughter of the late Allen and Maude Foster was born in Cincinnati, Ohio on January 17, 1918. She departed this life on March 6, 2015 after a brief illness. Freda, as she was lovingly called came to Baltimore as a young child. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. A graduate of Douglas High School, she was employed as a seamstress at Max Rubin Industries, where she retired in the late 1980's. She was married to the late Clement C. Carter for 46 years. He preceded her in death in 2000. Freda was a longtime member of New Shiloh Baptist Church where she attended regularly until she was stricken with shingles several years ago. Although she was no longer able to attend church services, she remained a devout christian, reading scripture and speaking of the Lord's goodness in her enduring years. She was so proud to be the longest living member of the family. In spite of her failing health, Freda was an extremely strong individual who held on to her faith in Christ until the very end. She leaves to mourn: her devoted cousins Lucille Ziglier, Thomas Reed and Melvin Reed and their wives Reber L. and Angela as well as a host of other relatives.
