

Elizabeth Crawley

June 26, 1932 - December 12, 2012

On December 12, 2012, God called ELIZABETH (nee Hendricks) CRAWLEY home. The third child of David and Lucy Hendricks was born in Wise, North Carolina on July 26, 1932.

She received her education in Wise, North Carolina and enjoyed growing up there. She moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1953 and went to work at Read's Drugstore. She later worked at Waverly Press until her health caused her to retire.

"Liz", as she was affectionately known, was the mother of four sons. Her three youngest, John Gill, Gregory Crawley and Michael Crawley went to be with God prior to her.

Liz enjoyed playing Bingo and participating in other activities at the Glen Burnie Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, where she resided since November of 2009. She loved attending their religious service on Sunday afternoons. The staff and residents became her second family.

Left to cherish fond memories of Liz are: her husband, George Crawley; her eldest son, Joseph Gill (Lena); four grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, two stepgrandchildren; five stepgreat-grandchildren; and a host of family and special friends.

“ GOD has taken Elizabeth "Momma" Crawley home where she has finally regained her happiness. I'm sorry to see her leave us or that I never go a chance to see her before she left. I know if she impacted my life here I will get the chance to see her again. For right now I will continue to miss her and the infinite wisdom she gave to me. Love you and Miss you "Ma"!!!
