

Elizabeth Curbeam

April 18, 1929 - April 20, 2008

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Curbeam, daughter of the late Rev. D.C. Chisolm and Mary Holley Chisolm, was born on April 18, 1929, in Fairfield County, South Carolina. After a long illness, she departed this life early Sunday morning of April 20, 2008 at Union Memorial Hospital. Elizabeth gave her life to Christ at an early age and was a faithful member of Mt. Pilgrim Baptist Church in Fairfield County, South Carolina. She was united in marriage to James B. Curbeam on August 10, 1952 and they resided in Baltimore, Maryland. Five children were born to this union; two sons and three daughters. After moving to Baltimore she became a member of New Friendship Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Joseph Culp. She served on the Culp Jubilee, Gospel Choir, Pastor's Aide Ministry and the Missionary Ministry until her illness. In 1982 she joined Excelsior Chapter #41 order of the Eastern Star and was Worthy Matron in 1987. Her favorite scripture was Psalm 23, favorite saying were; "Don't Put Your Faith In Man, Put It In The Lord", and "Take One Day At A Time". She had several nicknames: Liz, Midget, Hun, Shorty, and was called Jitter Bug by her husband who she called Hooley or Cannon-Ball. She was a dedicated wife, mother, homemaker, and seamstress. Her family will always remember her cooking, caring, and support of all her family members. Her love will be greatly missed as well as her Mac&Cheese, Chicken&Dumplings, Biscuits, Cornbread, Cakes, and OH YES her SWEET POTATO PIES. Surely, as we continue to gather for prayer and dinner Mom will be with us in spirit. She leaves to cherish to her memory: Husband James

“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of Elizabeth. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span was 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your dear one. Although many months have passed, I know her memory is still in your hearts, because we never forget our loved ones; time just helps to ease the pain a little. Please keep in mind that every day that passes is one day closer to seeing her again. She is in Jehovah God's memory, and one day he will awaken her from the sleep of death. John 5:28,29, Acts 24:15. Until that wonderful day of the resurrection, may your cherished memories of Elizabeth be a source of comfort to you as you reflect on the good days you shared with her.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what's more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is to come.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
