

Elizabeth Louise Davis

April 12, 1946 - February 11, 2011

Our beloved mother, ELIZABETH “LIBBY” LOUISE DAVIS, departed this life on February 11, 2011 after a short illness. She was born on April 12, 1946 in New York City, the second child of the late Phyllis Wharton and John Hillard. Her sisters, aunts and uncles, whom she was raised with, all described her as “fun,” “loving” and “care-free, “ despite a difficult upbringing.

Liz later married William F. Davis, Sr., moved to Maryland, first to Salisbury and then to Baltimore, where she raised her family. She became a single mother of four, but she was determined to provide the best life possible for her children. She was known in the neighborhood as “Miss Liz,” a strict disciplinarian who believed in tough love but had a big heart. She often gave to those who were less fortunate and was always willing to lend a helping hand. There was nothing more important to Liz than spending time with family and friends. She had a genuine love for life and enjoyed making others laugh-even to the very end.

Liz was employed by Bethlehem Steel, Baltimore Promotion and Tourism, World Trade Center and most recently Save-A-Lot. Her co-worker said, “she always had a joke” and “she loved talking about her family, she was a member of the Kingdom Hall. She had a strong desire to live life according to God's Word.

To carry on her legacy of love and laughter, Liz leaves behind: three daughters, Tina, Wanda and Lovette; a son, William F. Davis, Jr.; twelve grandchildren, Darrell Jr., Teree, Davon, William III (Will), Allen Jr., Lovette (Angel), Vasha, Stacy, Amayaa, Star (Nana) , Immanuel and Cortez; three great-grandchildren, two sisters, Nancy Giggans and Sharon Patterson; brother-in-law, Hedley Patterson; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.
