

Elizabeth Day

January 18, 1920 - September 28, 2015

A precious one from us is gone, a voice we loved is still.
A place is vacant in our hearts that never can be filled.

Elizabeth Ellis Day, 95, was born January 18, 1920 to the late Dawson and Bessie Ellis in Powhatan, Virginia. She was called home to the Gates of Heaven September 28, 2015. She was preceded in death by her husband, Earl Day.

Elizabeth was affectionately called “Nanny” and “Aunt Lizzie” by her family. Nanny had a passion for her family and gave the love, time, and energy to each of them. She lived life to its fullest and was a very independent, living by herself until God called her name. Nanny enjoyed gardening and especially loved flowers. She was the light of her family and was an outstanding example of a very giving human being who always somehow put others before herself. Our Nanny was a true reflection of God’s love! Her life was touched by God and she in turn touched others.

Elizabeth leaves with her family the strength to face all trials set before them; all the love to carry on another generation and great memories of the true love of a mother. She will always be remembered as a devoted and loving mother, sister, grandmother and loyal friend.

Cherishing her fond memories and for us to carry on her spirit are three daughters, Sandra Woodson (Alphonso) who provided loving care to mom as God ordered it; Pamela Thompson Evans and Valerie Turner Brooks (Grayland); son, Theodore Wilkerson (Delphine); a host of grandchildren; one steadfast Justin Turner. Nanny has only one surviving sister, Ada Davis; a multitude of nieces, nephews, devoted Carol Ellis White. She also has some great-grandchildren, one she'll never meet, but dear baby we'll tell you all about her.

Tears will come from time to time,
but so will joy in the morning.
Rest dear mother, rest...

Valerie Brooks

Where Could I Go But To The Lord
Life here is grand with friends I love so dear
Comfort I get from God's own word
Yet when I face that chilling hand of death
Won't you tell me
Where could I go but to the Lord.

“ I am so sorry for your loss . How comforting to know that Almighty God has not only the power but the desire to reunite us with our loved ones by means of the resurrection hope Jesus spoke of in the Bible at John 5 : 21,28,29

Delores Allen - October 01, 2015 at 04:17 AM

“ *Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I know that you and your family look forward to the fulfillment of the Bible's promise of a time when no resident will say they are sick (Isa.
33:24) and when death will be done away with forever (Rev. 21:3,4).
I pray too that your fond memories will provide you with a sense of comfort during your time of distress.*
